

THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS
Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Lecture on Salesmanship.—J. Will Gray is to lecture this evening, at the Y. M. C. A. on "Salesmanship."

Young People's Banquet.—The Young People's Christian union of this city will give a banquet Friday evening in the First Congregational church.

Porter Buss Joy Wagon.—Landlord Don H. Porter of the Keosauwon hotel has just bought a $4,500 seven passenger automobile to use at Stockton, Cal., where he is to spend the winter.

Lecture on Hindustani.—A. Christine of India, a Hindoo traveler, lectured Sunday afternoon before the boys' section of the Y. M. C. A. on the manners and customs of his native land.

New Organist.—Mrs. J. L. Stohauer, formerly of Omaha, and a sister of Freeman Morningstar of this city, began Sunday her engagement as organist of the First Methodist church.

"War" Is Successful.—The "war" of the Y. M. C. A. for recruits continues with excellent prospect, as a ready number of "rookies" are being booked at the office of the adjutant in Brooks arcade.

Director Logan Lectures.—Musical Director Logan of the Chaucery Olcott company played a number of his own compositions and acted before the Saturday afternoon at Madame Sweeney's studio.

Application for Water.—The New-castle Reclamation company of Washington county has filed an application with the state engineer, for 10 cubic feet of water from Big Creek, to irrigate 4,500 acres of land.

Contract Let for Weir.—The board of public works awarded the contract of building the weir at the high line intake in City Creek to Zerbe & Walker Saturday night. The contract price was $1,570, which is $170 higher than the city engineer's estimate.

Fighting Necrobacillosis.—The call of the state sheep board for funds with which to fight necrobacillosis among sheep is being pretty generally responded to, which it is hoped will enable State Veterinarian Young to eradicate the disease. Mr. Young left today for the northern part of the state to look after conditions there.

Planning Big Charity Dinner.—Officials of the Salvation Army and the Volunteers of America are already planning for a big Thanksgiving dinner for the unemployed. Subscriptions will be asked for, and the Commercial street chapel will be converted into a dining room. The women of St. Mark's church will furnish dishes, tables and chairs.

Youth Held for Burglary.—A young man giving the name of T. Buell, aged 18 years, was arrested Saturday night on the charge of robbery by Detectives Ripley and Curran. The young man is accused of entering a room in the Wilson hotel and stealing therefrom a suitcase containing a number of valuable toilet articles and clothing. When arrested he was trying to dispose of some of the stolen articles.

Ladies' Auxiliary Election.—The following officers have been elected by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the free reading room for the blind: Mrs. Andrew S. Rowan, honorary president; Mrs. A. S. Bart, president; Mrs. W. S. McCormick, first vice president; Mrs. Walter S. Scott, second vice president; Mrs. B. A. Burt, secretary; Mrs. A. Allen, treasurer; Mrs. J. J. Snider, librarian. The association has over 200 members, and a fairly large collection of books.

Board Committees Meet Today.—The committees of the city board of education meet this afternoon to arrange the high school election. At its regular meeting Tuesday night, the high school board election is to be discussed. It is now in the hands of the committee on school law. The committee will decide upon a report to be made Tuesday night. It is probable that the committee will report favorably on the bond issue and the election will be held about the first of the year.

Brines in Good Place.—M. J. Brines is now singing in the quartet of the First Baptist church in New York city, one of the oldest churches in the country. Mr. Brines is waiting a call to rehearse "The Paradise of Mohamet," which is being revised and rewritten. Since he has been in the east Mr. Brines has sung in concert in Brooklyn successfully, and has been asked to rehearse with the Mendelssohn Glee club, the finest male chorus in the country.

Two Shots Muzzle Neighborhood.—Two revolver shots on Seventh and Sixth East streets, fired in quick succession Sunday evening, caused an alarm to be sent to police headquarters. Several officers hurried to the scene expecting to nab a hold-up, but it was learned that the cause of the shots was a row between two union and two non-union men. The trouble, however, so far as could be discovered, was suffered by a man named Tom Jones, who had been struck over the head with a gun. No arrests were made.

Hillside College Men Organize.—The local resident graduates of the University of Illinois, organized a local alumni association Saturday evening at the Moxian hotel, when these officers were chosen: Wesley E. King, class of '07, manager of American Surety company, president; E. O. Lee of Booth, Lee & Rudger, vice president; George C. Bartlett, Jr., class '08, secretary and treasurer; W. H. Gregory, class '06, historian. At the banquet toasts were responded to by W. H. Gregory, H. J. Verneburg, E. O. Lee, H. Brown and George C. Bartlett.

Watch for Two Irishmen.—The police have sent out a warning to Lake citizens, especially housewives, to be on the lookout for two young Irishmen who are said to be fabers of the worst kind. The graft of the two men is to sell Irish lace which they claim they smuggled into the country following a shipwreck. The lace, it is reported, is not the genuine article, and it is claimed that hundreds of persons in Denver were defrauded by the smooth grafters.

New Talmage Book on Sale.—The first copies of the new work by Dr. James E. Talmage, entitled "The Great Apostasy," were placed on sale at the Deseret News book store this morning. The demand is already very strong from all points of the country. The book, while somewhat smaller than the same author's "Articles of Faith," is bound in the same style and is prepared as a companion volume with it. Its price has been fixed at 60c so as to insure the widest circulation.

Hurt in Fall From Car.—While alighting from a street car on State street Sunday night, Clara Aversa, residing at 25 Pine avenue, fell heavily to the pavement and was rendered unconscious. He was picked up and taken to the county infirmary, where he received medical attention and was then taken to the L. D. S. hospital. The man received numerous cuts and bruises about the head and legs, and while in hospital he was in a painful condition. He is now recovering.

Press Club Warm-Up.—The house warming of the Press club at the new rooms, 65 Main street, Saturday evening, was a most successful affair. The new quarters consist of three rooms, one for billiards, one for reading and the other as a reception room. Many friends of the club members visited the rooms Saturday night and were given an interesting entertainment. A musical program and numerous "suits" were "pulled off," and some of the visitors played billiards. During the evening refreshments were served.
